To whom it may concern,

This is to serve as a recommendation of Vojtěch Pišl as a translator.

Because of time pressure while translating a professional book from English to Czech I asked Vojtěch Pišl for help.

He translated a considerable portion of the book and his work was in my opinion of very good quality.

There was no need for any corrections.

I could use his translation completely and directly.

Having this experience I would not hesitate to ask him for some translation work again, if I needed some help.

Regards
